LAWRENCE, SAMUEL S.

Portrait and Biographical Album of Oakland County, Michigan, Chapman Bros.
 (1891), pp. 781-782

SAMUEL S. LAWRENCE, a farmer on section 10, , is a son of John Lawrence, son of John, a native of Connecticut, who went to Vermont when a young man, and locating his farm, returned to Connecticut and was married. His father, Jonathan, was a native of Holland, of English parentage. When a child his parents returned to England. The father of Mrs. Lawrence disinherited her, and she with her husband and child sailed for America, where young Jonathan was reared in Worcester, Mass. This emigration of John and Mary (Townesley) Lawrence, took place in 1714. They had been married in 1693, and both died in 1743.

Their son Jonathan, who was the great-grandfather of our subject, married Elizabeth Buttrick, who died in 1735. His second marriage, in 1738, was with Hannah Robins. Unto them were born six children - Jonathan, Mary, Nathaniel, Abigail, John (the grandfather of our subject), and William. The children by the first wife were - Experience, Samuel, Jacob and Josiah. Jonathan Lawrence spent his latter days in Connecticut, where he died in 1769. The grandfather of our subject was born in 1746, in Connecticut, and married in 1769, Mary Cleveland, who was born in 1748. This couple died, he in 1825 and she in 1836.

The children of the grandfather of our subject were: Ruth, Pitt, John (deceased), Sarah (deceased), Lydia, Sarah, Mary, John (the father of our subject), Samuel (deceased), and Alice. This John Lawrence was a farmer and a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He was a Minute Man in the battle of Bennington. John Lawrence, Jr., was born January 7, 1786, in Bennington, Vt. In the same place he was married to Susan Stanton in 1806. After a few years they removed to New York, and settled in Spafford, Onondaga County. Here they lived about twelve years, and then removed to Cortland County, and after a few years came to Michigan, where they arrived in 1835. Their children were: Hannah N., Phoebe S., John C., Russel J., Pitt, Minerva, Alanson T., Porter J., Samuel S. and Luman N., who all lived to maturity.

When John Lawrence first came to Michigan, he purchased one hundred and fifty acres- in Washington Township, Macomb County. He afterward added forty acres, and then sold his farm and went to Oxford Township, Oakland County, where he resided until his death, August 2, 1855. His faithful wife survived him until May 23, 1866. They were both earnest and consistent members of the Baptist Church. He was a Democrat, and was for nine years Justice of the Peace in Macomb County. He was a school teacher in an early day, and for some years he kept tavern in connection with farming.

Samuel S. Lawrence was born April 23, 1824, in Onondago County, N. Y. At the age of eleven years he came West with his parents. January, 1846, saw his marriage with Laura L. Alma, a native of New York, where she was born January 28, 1831. Their wedding took place in Oakland County. Their wedded life lasted only the short period of six years, when the wife was called to her heavenly home August 30, 1852. In 1848 Mr. Lawrence left the farm of his father, and settled in Oxford on a farm of fifty acres, which he ultimately increased to one hundred and fifty broad and fertile acres. He traveled for an insurance company for about two years, and in 1864 came to _____, where he has since resided. Here he owns two hundred and forty acres upon which he has erected good buildings.

The second marriage of our subject took place March 26, 1855, in Oxford Township, Oakland County. His wife, Almeda Tindall, is a daughter of Joseph and Patience R. (Freeman) Tindall, natives of New York. To this couple were born the [Begin Page 782] following children, who are all living: Francis, Carrie, Fred, Will, Ina and Ed. Mr. Lawrence is a breeder of Shropshire sheep, and a general farmer. Not only he and his excellent wife, but most of his family are members of the Congregational Church. He and three of his sons are earnest Prohibitionists, and he has worked and voted for Prohibition for nineteen years, previous to which he was a Democrat. He was educated with more than ordinary care in his youth, and has been a teacher during some portions of his life.

WILL AND PROBATE

Samuel S. Lawrence

1788- 1861

State of Vermont:

At a Probate Court holden District of Bennington, at the Probate Office in Bennington on the 15th day of November, 1861, present the Hon. Thomas White, Register, acting as judge;

Whereas an instrument in writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Samuel Lawrence, late of Bennington in said district deceased, has heretofore been presented to the court here for probate; and whereas the court appointed this day and place for hearing and deciding upon said instrument, and made an order requiring notice thereof to be given to all persons interested by publishing the same three weeks successively in the Bennington Banner, printed at Bennington previous to said time of hearing. And it being duly proven that said order of notice has been duly complied with, said instrument was proven to have been executed and attested according to the requirement of the Statute and pursuant to the witnesses Certificate thereof, by William Haswell and S. B. Haswell two of the subscribing witnesses thereto. It is therefore ordered and decreed that said instrument be approved and allowed as the last will and testament of the said deceased, and as such to be recorded. The same is in the word and figures following:

I, Samuel Lawrence of Bennington, in the County of Bennington and State of Vermont, being of reasonable health, and in my own apprehension of sound mind, do hereby make this my last will and testament'

It is my will that all my just debt and the charges of my funeral, be paid and discharged by my Executor, hereinafter named and appointed, all of my estate as soon as conveniently after my decease, and I leave the charges of my funeral to the direction of my Executor.

I give, desire and dispose of all my Estate, real and personal, and what shall be necessary for the payment of my debts and funeral charges in the following manner:

I give to my beloved wife Alida Lawrence, the use and occupancy of one half of the garden on the south side of the highway, the east room in my house, the pantries adjoining, and small bedroom chamber, the north half of the cellar and the south half of the woodhouse while she remains my widow and chooses to occupy the same.

I also give to my wife the use and occupancy of the front hall and west room, upon the same conditions upon which the other rooms are willed to her, unless my daughter, Adeline should wish to occupy a portion of the house or should convey the same to her brother Samuel S. or his wife, Harriet in which case my said wife to have the privilege of said hall and west room in common with them. I also give to my dear wife the privilege of the sink room for washing in common with the occupants of the house. I also give to my dear wife the use of a good cow, and the same to be kept for her on the farm summer and winter free of charge. Also wood for one stove fitted for that stove and placed in the woodhouse. Also all the flour, meal, sugar, tea and coffee she may need for her own use, the same to be provided for by my executor and paid for out of my estate. I also give to my said wife a right of way to the rooms and places designated. I also give my beloved wife the use of the horse and carriage I may die possessed, at such time as she may wish to use the same and while she remains on the farm. I give to my said wife all the currents, grapes, plums, apples and pears she may want for her own use, provided they grow upon the farm from year to year. I give to my daughter, Adeline Bigelow, all my home farm that lies north of the highway and running through the same and also a piece of land on the south side of the highway, commencing at the northeast corner of the orchard meadows running south on the stone wall eight rods, thence west to the line between the Barney farm and my land, then northerly on said line to the highway, thence easterly on said line to the highway to first bounds. I give to my son Samuel N. Lawrence fifty dollars. I give my beloved wife, Alida Lawrence, fifty dollars, to be paid to her by my executor within one year after my decease. I give to Harriet Lawrence, wife of my son Samuel N. Lawrence, the remains of my home farm lying on the south side of the highway. The residue and remainder of all my estate, both real and personal I give and grant to my daughter, Adeline Bigelow, and my daughter in law, Harriet Lawrence, in equal shares, and to their heirs forever. And I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint Samuel N. Lawrence, Executor of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made. In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, this 21st day of September, A. D. 1857.

Signed, sealed, published and delivered by the said Samuel Lawrence as his last will and testament, in presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereof at the request and in the presence of said Testator and in the presence of each other.

Lawrence Family Record

An Old English Family

John, & Mary his wife, born in Connecticut, 1741, later moved to Vermont, died in 1825, leaving several sons and daughters.

Of these, John, born 1786, married Susannah Steetson. To these were born

— Hannah, Phoebe, John C., Russel Johnson (my father), Feb. 22, 1813, Pitt, Minerva, Hanson, Porter, Samuel Stanton, and Luman Norton Lawrence.

Father was the only one of this family ever identified with our Message. He was a Baptist minister, but read himself into much of our faith. His preaching it did not meet the Baptist standards, consequently lost his pastorate. Soon after, he came in contact with some S.D.A. believers, saw and accepted of the truth, and was authorized to preach
it. He served a number of years without pay, bearing his own expenses from his labor on his farm. As was possible, he would go out for a few days, weeks, or months, preach the message wherever an opening offered. He carried a large leather case of books, tracts, and papers always with him, doing much of his traveling on foot, and visiting from house to house.

Later, he was sent by Conf. authority to open up the work in the State of Missouri. He was gone about two years on this trip, and on his return

This great grand uncle moved to Vermont N.Y. state
moved to Mich.

The writing is that of Norris W. Lawrence, son of Russel J. Lawrence. Bethel
Rice Barger was starting a Lawrence Genealogy.

I, just a lad of about then years, did not recognize him, and could not yet understand his familiarity in greeting mother.

He spent most of his later years directly in the work in Michigan, till his eyesight failed about four years before his death.
 He died at my home in Grayville, Penn.
 having retained his mental faculties fully to the age of 84 yrs. ^(26, 1900 - 1900) Seven sons and four daughters grew to maturity, all but two were observers of the Faith. The oldest son, Leonard, assisted in establishing the school in Australia at Coorambong.

I am the only one of the family ordained to the Ministry. After graduating at Battle Creek College in 1890, I spent four years in editorial work in the R. & H. (one year on the Review, and three on the Instructor). Then was called to the educational work, which I have followed principally since till 34 years ago, teaching Bible & English, considerable of this time, I carried administrative work in the field, and in institutions. Am now retired.

P.S. R. & H. W. Lawrence are unknown to me, but likely belong to the family somewhere
 as the original stock is widely scattered.

	(William H. has a dau. Evelyn F., b.Sept. 1899
11	June 2002, by Ruth A. Hoepfer: Due to the 1874/75 letters that turned up, I strongly believe that either he or his brother Russel J. Lawrence did get to see Adeline (Lawrence) Bigelow in Center Cambridge, Washington County, NY and were able to see the Old Bible that belonged to John & Mary (Cleveland) Lawrence, held by Adeline. They probably saw the years of birth for their children, which the DAR shows. (If only Samuel Stanton Lawrence's descendants could be found, more might be learned.)
